

ANNOUNCEMENT

National Institute of Development Administration

Implication of an Online Application under Coronavirus Disease 2019 (COVID-19) Epidemic Outbreaks

Under the authority Article 40 based on National Institute of Development Administration Act. A.D. 2019, NIDA hereby issues an application method guidelines during COVID-19 Epidemic Outbreaks as follows:

1. All types of application and programs are required to conduct through an online application method and avoid having personal application process.
2. Applicants must apply through an online application method at <http://entrance.nida.ac.th>. Application schedule and regulations will be in accordance with the NIDA's announcement on application procedures of each program.
3. The application process will be completed once the application fee has been verified. The results of the application process will be announced after 2 working days of the payment. The application result announcement will be shown at <http://entrance.nida.ac.th>.

In case of an unfound application data, please feel free to contact NIDA's Educational Service Division staff at 0-2727-0070-73.

4. All required documents must be in accordance with the NIDA's announcement on application procedures of each program.

Required documents must submit via email at entrance@nida.ac.th.

Announced on March 20, 2020

(Professor Dr. Kamphol Panyagometh)

NIDA President