

ANNOUNCEMENT

National Institute of Development Administration

Extended Temporary Suspension of the Operational Services

According to National Institute of Development Administration's announcement regarding temporary suspension of the operational services from March 22, 2020 to April 12, 2020 dated March 21, 2020 to prevent the wide spreading of Coronavirus Disease 2019 (COVID-19) Epidemic Outbreaks.

In accordance with Government's announcement on Nationwide Emergency Decree from March 26, 2020 to April 30, 2020 together with Bangkok Metropolitan Administration (BMA)'s announcement to extend temporary suspension of the places' operational services including all levels of educational institutions until April 30, 2020; under the authority Article 40 based on National Institute of Development Administration Act. A.D. 2019, NIDA hereby announces the following temporary suspension of the operational services as follows.

1. NIDA is obliged to extend temporary suspend our operational services residing in Bangkok to April 30, 2020. NIDA President appointed only designated management team and security team to remain on campus.
2. All instructions are required to conduct through online system to comply with Guidelines for Instructional Management under an Extraordinary Circumstance as Result of COVID-19. Instructors and staff are obliged to employ work from home methods according to NIDA's announcement on work from home during Coronavirus Disease 2019 (COVID-19) Epidemic outbreaks.
3. In case of any difficulties arise from implementing this announcement; NIDA President has the authority for discretion and his decision shall be made as final.

Announced on March 27, 2020

(Professor Dr. Kamphol Panyagometh)

NIDA President